

1 Circle the correct answer: a, b or c.

- When you go walking in the mountains, you must let people know where you are at times. The weather can change very quickly up there.
a every b total c all
- I've got a bit of time on my next week if you want to meet up then.
a wrists b hands c fingers
- He finds it so hard to time. He needs some hobbies.
a fill in b complete c fill
- You've got to it time, John. Things will work out, you'll see.
a give b let c permit
- All right everybody. Time's for today.
a up b off c out
- Look, bring in your car tomorrow and I'll have it fixed for you in time at all.
a not b none c no
- I'm just hanging around the shops time at the moment.
a using b killing c doing

2 Complete the dialogues with the phrases from Exercise 1.

- A: Remember, Jake, treat people with politeness and respect at all times.
B: Don't worry, Mum, I won't forget.
- A: What are we going to do? We've got some to before we meet Anna.
B: Let's go for a coffee somewhere.
- A: Could you me a little to think it over?
B: Of course.
- A: What's wrong, Mick?
B: Oh, I don't know. I'm just a bit bored. I've got too much at the moment.
- A: You should your doing things you enjoy.
B: That's the trouble. I get bored so easily. I can't find anything do to that I actually want to do.
- A: Dinner will be ready at all so can you put the video game away now?
B: All right, Dad.
- A: Your , I'm afraid.
B: Oh, already? How much would it be to use the computer for another hour?

3 Complete the story with the correct form of the words in the box.

alone hope shore
rescue washed up
note loneliness
home lonely forage

She was ¹ washed up on the ² with what remained of her boat. Once she had come around, she soon discovered that she was ³ There was no sound, except for the birds and the wash of the waves. She had no food, nothing to drink, and nothing to wear except the clothes she stood up in. She wanted to write a ⁴ , send out an SOS, let the world know what had happened to her, but she had no paper and she had no pens. All her possessions had been lost to the sea. For a time, she ⁵ that she would be ⁶ But no ships came by. She ⁷ for food in the trees and survived on berries and nuts. She drank from a shallow pool. She began to feel ⁸ and her ⁹ was sometimes more than she could bear. But she had to go on, she had to survive in her new circumstances, there was no other choice, and as the days became weeks and then months, the island, little by little, became her ¹⁰