

1 Complete the sentences with the opposite of the words in brackets.

- 1 This match is so boring (exciting). I'm nearly falling asleep.
- 2 Please don't play the guitar so loud. It's very (quiet).
- 3 I don't like living in this town. It just isn't (dangerous) any more.
- 4 My granddad is very (modern) – he doesn't really understand young people.
- 5 The teacher told the class to be (noisy) during the lesson.
- 6 There are a lot of (safe) animals in Australia.
- 7 I love snowboarding. It's a really (boring) sport.

2 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

modern noisy boring
quiet dangerous exciting

- 1 The road where we live is too noisy because there are so many cars and buses.
- 2 It was an match. United scored two goals in the last five minutes.
- 3 I don't want to fight in a war. It's too
- 4 I didn't want to finish the book because it was so
- 5 My dad says music is no good. He likes the Beatles and Elvis.
- 6 It's very in my town and there isn't really anything to do.

3 Complete the dialogue with the expressions in the box.

What's the matter?
I don't believe it!
sort of You see

Sophie: Hey, Dean. ¹ What's the matter?

Dean: Well, I've got a problem.
², I asked Stacey to come to the school disco with me, but now I want to go with Gemma.

Sophie: ³ You always wanted to go out with Stacey. You do still like her, don't you?

Dean: Yes, ⁴ – but I think I like Gemma better.