football player      lorry driver      singer      electrician      secretary      lawyer      teacher      TV presenter      cook      dancer

NICK: Hi Maddie. What are you looking at?
 MADDIE: It's a photo of my mum's birthday, when she was fourteen.
 NICK: Let's see.
 MADDIE: Look, they're my grandparents, Jack and Mary. They lived with their eight children in the small house you can see in the photo. They weren't rich but they were happy. Jack was a lorry driver and Mary was a cook: she was famous for her tasty chocolate cakes! My mother's uncles and aunts were very interesting people. My grandfather's brother David- the tall, thin man in the photo – was a History teacher. His wife, Anne – look, she's standing next to David in the photo – was a singer and dancer. They were very different!
 NICK: Who's the woman wearing the red sandals?
 MADDIE: Ah, that's my mum's Aunt Polly. She was a secretary for a very important lawyer. She was very young in the photo – and very clever and beautiful. She was my mum's favourite aunt.
 NICK: Is that her boyfriend with the black hair?
 MADDIE: No, that's her brother, James. He was a football player for England. His wife Sarah was an electrician. Look he's sitting next to her in the photo.
