DANNY: Why?

ROB: I studied because I've got exams next week.

DANNY: What did you study?

ROB: I studied Maths all weekend. I hate Maths – it's awful! What about you? Did you study a lot, too?

DANNY: No, I didn't study because I finished my exams last week! I stayed at home, played video games and watched a lot of DVDs!

ROB: Lucky you! How many DVDs did you watch?

DANNY: Oh, I don't know... three or four.

ROB: Did you watch the Matrix DVD you borrowed from me?

DANNY: I didn't watch that, but I finally watched the last Pirates of the Caribbean film.

ROB: Did you like it?

DANNY: Yes, I loved it! It was excellent! Johnny Depp was brilliant.

ROB: I didn't like it very much. The first two films were good, but the last film was very long.

DANNY: So did you study all weekend?

ROB: No. My uncle Ted visited on Saturday night.

DANNY: Did he play his guitar?

ROB: Yes, he did. Dad played the piano and Mum and Christine danced!

DANNY: Did you dance?

ROB: No, I didn't dance. I'm a terrible dancer! But I listened to the music. It was really good!
