Every child has the right to learn in a safe environment where they are both supported and challenged.

Mark Meredith will be looking at the theme of Influencers - teachers will be encouraged to consider their own circle of influence and the impact of social media on today's education.

And Alexandra Purcell will demonstrate some key strategies and practical ideas to help create a diverse and differentiated inclusive environment, both in and out of the classroom, working with familiar classroom and assessment material.

Speakers

Mark Meredith

Mark began teaching English in Spain in 2010. He holds a Trinity DipTesol and is currently a Teacher Trainer for Cambridge University Press Iberia. Since arriving in Spain he has taught primary and secondary students, future university students on pre-sessional courses and has run a variety of professional English courses for adults.

Alexandra Purcell

Alexandra has been working in ELT since 2005. Since moving to Spain in 2009 she has taught classes of all ages and levels. She has designed and delivered training courses aimed at teachers in the bilingual system, and has written course book materials for primary levels. She is DELTA qualified and particularly enjoys helping teachers prepare their students for exams. Alexandra now works as a Teacher Trainer for Cambridge University Press Iberia.
