Welcome to the Cambridge Day Sevilla!

We kick off the event with Michael Tomlinson, who will explore how we can create a stimulating and encouraging environment for students, equipping them with the skills they need to tackle with confidence a variety of assessments. Mark Meredith will then go on to discuss how we can prepare our students with skills that go beyond learning an additional language, incorporating life competencies into our day-to-day routines.

Speakers

Michael Tomlinson

Cambridge Author

Michael has been teaching English since 1989. He has worked in the UK, Turkey, Spain and Sweden, with students ranging from children to adults and from beginner to proficiency level. He is currently a teacher at Star English, Murcia. He has also led numerous teacher training talks and workshops in Europe, Central and South America and Asia. His publications include two primary courses, Life Adventures and Kid's Box, both co-authored with Caroline Nixon. Michael and Caroline have also written a three-level pre-primary series for Cambridge, called Pippa and Pop.

Mark Meredith

Professional Learning and Development Trainer

Since arriving in Spain, Mark has taught primary and secondary students as well as future university students on pre-sessional programmes. He has also run professional development training sessions and courses with teachers from across Spain and Portugal as well as delivering local and international webinars. He holds a Trinity DipTESOL and an MA in TESOL from Lancaster University.
