Welcome to the Cambridge Day Porto!

We are delighted to welcome Ben Goldstein as we analyse the important role of mobile pedagogy in ELT today. We will focus on use, both inside and outside the classroom and the need to promote digital literacy, a foundational layer of the Cambridge Life Competencies Framework. After Ben's session we will be joined by Andrea Tolve who will present some collaborative and dynamic activities for exam preparation with our B1 and B2 level learners.

Agenda

Thursday,
11th May

17.30 – 17.50	Registration
17.50 – 18.00	Introduction and Welcome
18.00 – 18.50	They Never Look Up From Their Phones with Ben Goldstein
18.50 – 19.15	Coffee
19.15 – 20.00	Collaborative Approaches to Exam Preparation with Andrea Tolve

Speakers

Ben Goldstein

Ben is a writer, teacher, teacher trainer and conference speaker. He taught materials writing for many years on the online MATESOL program of the New School, New York. He has written two methodology handbooks for teachers: Language Learning with Digital Video (with Paul Driver) and Working with Images. For students, he has co-authored the coursebook series Evolve, Eyes Open and English Unlimited (all for Cambridge). He has just finished working on the creation of Evolve Digital: an online course combining independent learning with synchronous teacher-led lessons.

Andrea Tolve

Andrea is the Professional Learning and Development Manager for Cambridge University Press & Assessment Iberia (Spain and Portugal) and has been working in the ELT world since 1999. She has experience in teaching all levels and age groups in Zagreb and Madrid and has been involved in developing and delivering teacher training solutions for over a decade. She has a Master of Arts in Education (Applied Linguistics) with The Open University and is passionate about teacher training and development.
