The 13 American Colonies

Why did people go?

People emigrated to North America for different reasons: for a better life, to make money or for religious reasons. The English established the first colony in Virginia in 1607. In 1620, the famous ship the brought a group of Pilgrims to America. The Pilgrims were Puritans. Puritans believed in a simple life and in hard work. They wanted freedom to practise their religion and hoped to create a new society when they arrived. By 1733, there were 13 colonies on the east coast. These colonies are now states of the USA.

Life in the colonies

Life in the colonies was very difficult. There were some small towns, but most settlers lived and worked on farms. They made everything: their houses, their furniture, their clothes, and they grew their own food. Many people died because they couldn't live in the difficult conditions. 102 Pilgrims arrived on the Mayflower but only 53 survived the first winter. Native Americans helped them. They gave them food and taught them how to plant crops. To celebrate and give thanks to God, the Pilgrims had a feast with their Native American friends. Thanksgiving Day is now an annual holiday in the USA. It is on the fourth Thursday in November, every year.
