Welcome to the Cambridge Experience 2022, the very first as Cambridge University Press and Assessment!

We will kick off this event by exploring what it means to be an inclusive teacher, looking at strategies and techniques that encourage learners to participate in class and take an active role in their education. After this first session, we will welcome Jesús Guillén who will explore the influence of emotions on learning, how we can improve attention and the most effective study techniques according to recent scientific knowledge. We look forward to seeing you for a morning full of ideas, inspiration and discovery!

Saturday, 2nd April

10:00 - 10:30	Registration
10:30 - 10:45	Introduction and welcome
10:45 - 11:30	Belonging in the Classroom with Andrea Tolve
11:30 - 12:15	Una educación con cerebro with Jesús Guillén (talk delivered in Spanish)
12:30	Cocktail

Come and join us!

We'll be having a prize draw, so if you're lucky you could win a Samsung Galaxy Tab A7 Lite!

SPEAKERS

Edu1st chair of Neuroeducation at the University of Barcelona, JESÚS GUILLÉN teaches on the postgraduate and master's degrees in Neuroeducation there and also on the diploma of Neuroeducation at the Villa María National University (Argentina). Although currently working with adult learners, Jesús has many years of experience of teaching at all levels.
